Property Information

The property also benefits from; gas central heating, a large private communal garden, grounds and shared driveway. We understand the property is leasehold with the five apartments at Mainfield jointly owning the freehold. The vendor informs us the ground rent is £20 and the service charges c£2000 per year. The lease is 99 years from 25th December 1975, however the vendor informs us that all the paperwork has been drawn up for a 150 year lease from 28th December 2004 which has been agreed with all the residents and four of them have already been extended. He also said he is willing to arrange for the lease to be extended if the new buyers require this.
