Description

The picture postcard village of Thornton-le-Dale lies along the A170 Thirsk to Scarborough road and has good local facilities including family baker, post office, chemist, doctors surgery, general store and infant school. There are some beautiful and varied walks in and around the village with the entrance to Dalby Forest only a few minutes drive away where there is some of the most spectacular scenery, splendid walks and cycling trails. A train service is available at Malton, 7 miles to the south, with regular connections to York and beyond.

Chestnut Avenue is an area of the village some may deem the very centre. It runs along the main road but is also the most convenient for the village services with a bus stop and all the shops and eateries quite literally 'on your door step'. Kingfisher Cottage is a pretty, double fronted cottage with a pleasant stream running opposite. It is a surprisingly spacious three bedroom property with a full width living room to the front of the cottage and a dining kitchen to the rear. There has been a later ground floor extension to offer a garden room that also links off the kitchen with a utility and downstairs cloakroom. To the first floor there are 3 bedrooms, one having an en suite shower and the other two served by a house bathroom.

Outside the property has a private rear garden down mostly to lawn and flagged patio. Vehicular access to the property is from behind (Brook Lane) where a brick set drive extends to a timber framed carport and additional gravelled parking.
