Description

No 20 is situated along Dale End in Kirkbymoorside, a street of period town houses and cottages steeped in history and located just a stones throw away from the Market Place where a good range of local amenities are on hand.

The cottage is Grade II listed and has all the features one would expect from a period cottage such as beamed ceilings, window seats and sliding sash double glazed windows. The overall interior finish, however, is fresh and modern (some might describe it as retro) with contemporary kitchen and bathroom fittings, stylish interior floor coverings and a neutral scheme of interior decor that comes with a bold splash of colour in parts.

The kitchen/breakfast style dining area has been refurbished to a high standard with ultra modern appliances and the adjacent sitting room is a lovely place to relax in front of the log burning stove.

Head upstairs to the first floor and you'll find a comfortable double bedroom with adjacent bathroom and on the second floor, a second double bedroom with a stylish en suite shower room with large walk-in cubicle.

Outside there is a small courtyard area and useful outhouse for storing bicycles, recycling bins etc. Street parking is usually available close by.

This property is currently run as a successful holiday let/airbnb and its contents maybe available to purchase by separate negotiation if a purchaser wished to continue the business. Alternatively, the cottage would make a lovely first time purchase or "lock up and leave" for those in search of a weekend retreat.
