Description

A former farmstead, Low Farm is located near Hartoft, a small hamlet in the heart of the North York Moors National Park looking over Cropton Forest and surrounded by beautiful countryside with enviable views. Low Farm is made up of four traditional style stone built cottages; The Farmhouse, The Croft, The Cottage, The Bothy and approximately 40 acres of pasture and woodland.

Each property briefly comprises:

The Farmhouse - A large farmhouse kitchen/dining area, separate lounge with log burner, two double bedrooms and bathroom.

The Croft - An open plan barn conversion with a combined kitchen/living area, two double bedrooms and bathroom.

The Cottage - Lounge area with log burner, kitchen/dining area and two bedrooms both with en-suites.

The Bothy - Kitchen/living area and bedroom with an ensuite.

Externally there is a good sized garden and plenty of parking, with further outbuildings and approximately 40 acres of pasture and woodland.

Hartoft is set in the heart of the North Yorkshire Moors, surrounded by lovely walks and terrific views over the surrounding forest and countryside. The Village Rosedale Abbey is close by (2 miles) which has a small primary school, tea room, sandwich shop and village green. Rosedale Show is also held in the village each August and attracts 5,000 visitors.

The Market Towns of Kirbymoorside and Pickering are further afield (9 and 11 miles) and host a range of further amenities including pubs, shops, schools, health services and eateries. Malton is a half an hour drive away which facilitates a train station with excellent transport links to York, The Coast and London, which can be reached in under 2 hours.

Low Farm is currently run as holiday cottages and the vendor will continue to operate as such. Vacant possession of the whole can be arranged or the purchaser can continue with the holiday lettings.
