Description

Rye Cottage occupies a tranquil position in the rural village of Brawby.

Less than eight miles to the north of Malton the village nestles in the Vale of Pickering with the North York Moors to the north and the Howardian Hills to the south amid lovely countryside. Malton, Pickering and Kirkbymoorside are all within a similar distance with usual market town amenities. At Malton there is a railway station and the A64 is accessible providing links to the motorway network

This attractive, brick-built double fronted property offers scope for improvement and modernisation with potential to be a wonderful home. To the ground floor there is a through kitchen/ dining room with adjacent utility room/pantry. The sitting room has a new installed wood burning stove (with Hetas certificate). There are three bedrooms and bathroom to the first floor.

The cottage has a pretty front elevation with the porch and double hung sash windows complimented by the lawned front garden with central pathway.
