Exceptional ground floor flat in detached Victorian building! 3 beds, 18'8" lounge, conservatory, private garden, double garage. New 999yr lease! Near seafront & station. Must view!

This extraordinary ground floor apartment occupies the entire ground floor of an impressive detached double-fronted Victorian building, offering exceptional space and character that must be experienced to be believed. Beautifully presented throughout while retaining charming original features, the property provides three versatile bedrooms - two large doubles and a third currently serving as a home office. The generous living accommodation includes a bright 18'8" lounge, separate conservatory/dining area overlooking the stunning private rear garden, plus a well-appointed fitted kitchen, bathroom, and additional shower room. A useful basement provides excellent storage or potential for further living space conversion. The meticulously maintained private rear garden creates a peaceful sanctuary, while practical benefits include a detached double garage and convenient rear access parking. The location is exceptional, combining the tranquillity of this prestigious residential area with easy access to the seafront and Westcliff railway station - perfect for both coastal living and London commuting. This rare opportunity includes a brand new 999-year lease on completion, providing ultimate long-term security. The combination of substantial accommodation, period character, private outdoor space, and prime location makes this an outstanding proposition. An internal viewing is absolutely essential to appreciate the remarkable scale and quality this unique property offers.
