Offers Around £450,000

Discover this enchanting detached Victorian home, perfectly positioned on the peaceful outskirts of Great Wakering village. This beautifully restored property achieves the perfect balance between preserving authentic period character and embracing modern family living - a truly rare find that has been lovingly maintained throughout. The ground floor seamlessly blends charm with contemporary convenience. A cosy front lounge provides an intimate space for relaxation, while the heart of the home lies in the stunning open-plan kitchen, dining, and family area to the rear. This beautifully designed space creates the ideal environment for both everyday family life and entertaining guests. The addition of a practical utility room and convenient ground floor shower room demonstrates the thoughtful approach to modern living. Upstairs, three well-appointed bedrooms offer flexible accommodation for growing families, complemented by a generously proportioned family bathroom. The property's period features have been carefully preserved throughout, creating a home that feels both timeless and completely relevant to today's lifestyle. The outdoor space is equally impressive, with off-street parking providing practical convenience. The secluded west-facing rear garden is a particular highlight - a private sanctuary that captures beautiful evening sunlight and includes a substantial detached garden building. This versatile structure offers endless possibilities, whether as a home office, studio, workshop, or additional storage space. The current owners have cherished their time in this special home and are only relocating due to work commitments. Their care and attention is evident throughout, creating a property that is beautifully presented and ready to welcome its next chapter. This exceptional Victorian home can only be truly appreciated through an internal viewing - we invite you to discover its unique charm and modern comfort for yourself.
