Ashingdon Road, Rochford, SS4 1RF

Offers Over £300,000

Well-presented 2-bed semi, no chain! 25'8" lounge/diner, west-facing garden, parking, loft conversion potential. Near excellent schools & Rochford station. Perfect first-time buy or investment, viewing advised!

This well-presented two-bedroom semi-detached house has recently been re-decorated inside and out offering exceptional value with no onward chain, making it perfect for first-time buyers or investors seeking quality accommodation in a prime location. The impressive ground floor features a spacious 25'8" lounge and dining area that creates a wonderfully sociable living environment, complemented by an 11'5" fitted kitchen ideal for modern living. Upstairs, two generous double bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, while the large family bathroom completes the first floor with quality fixtures. The property enjoys a delightful sunny west-facing rear garden that captures beautiful afternoon and evening light - perfect for outdoor dining and relaxation. Convenient off-street parking adds significant practical value. The location is particularly strong, positioned close to excellent local schools and just a short stroll from Rochford railway station and town centre, offering both family convenience and commuter connectivity. Significantly, the property offers excellent potential for loft conversion, subject to necessary planning consents, providing exciting opportunities to add substantial value and additional living space. This represents an outstanding opportunity combining quality presentation, practical amenities, prime location, and development potential in one compelling package. Viewing recommended to appreciate the space and potential this excellent property offers.
