40 Morpeth Street, Hull, HU3 1RG

£140,000

Introducing this greatly extended traditional property which includes an over-structure extension to create a covered terrace, and is ideally paced to enjoy a wealth of local amenities, and transport links that provide easy access to the Hull City Centre.

Externally to the front approach, the property directly overlooks Morpeth Street. A first floor side extension provides a sheltered area which the resident uses to access the property.

Upon entering, the resident steps into the lounge that follows to a dining room, currently used as a bedroom, and fitted kitchen extension.

A fixed staircase rises to the first floor which boasts two fitted bedrooms, a good third bedroom, and a bathroom furnished with a five-piece suite.

French doors in the kitchen open onto a wooden decking seating area that overlooks the enclosed rear garden - partly laid to lawn, and complimented with a paved seating area. The residence also benefits from having a workshop, and a detached brick-built gardening room.
