This lovely location is found only a short drive away from Lanark town centre and its amenities. Lanark has a great Main Street and offers a wide range of shopping facilities, bars and restaurants whilst the nearby Lanark Falls visitor centre provides historical and cultural places of interest. Commuting to and from the town can be by either vehicle or public transport with excellent road and rail links servicing the area. Lanark also has several well regarded schools which cater for all denominations. There are excellent sports facilities within the area including golf courses, a swimming and leisure complex, parks, fishing clubs and picturesque walks . The surrounding towns include Biggar, Broughton and Carluke which offer additional shops, restaurants, coffee shops, garden centres and similar village settings and lifestyles to Lanark.
