Overview

Located on the charming Rodney Road in West Bridgford, this delightful 1930's semi-detached house has been modernised by the current owner, yet retains some original features including original internal doors, some original stain glass windows, with wall panelling in the main hallway, stairs and landing. The property also benefits from downlighting to most rooms, while chrome/brushed steel sockets and switches feature throughout the house.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming hallway with cloakroom and wall panelling, leading to two inviting reception rooms, including the bay-fronted living room with marble fireplace and electric fire. The heart of the home is undoubtedly the open-plan rear dining room and modern kitchen, which has integrated appliances including a dishwasher and fridge freezer. This area is perfect for family gatherings and entertaining, with a sliding patio door leading out to the garden. Upstairs there are three bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom, thoughtfully designed with both a bath and a large separate shower.

Outside, the gated driveway offers secure parking for two vehicles, plus the detached double garage, providing additional parking or storage/workshop space. The location is particularly appealing, being just a minute's walk from both Abbey Road Primary and St Edmund Campion Catholic Primary schools, making school runs a breeze. West Bridgford's busy central shopping area is also just a couple of minutes drive.

This property is a wonderful opportunity for those looking to settle in a vibrant community, with excellent local amenities and transport links nearby. With its charming features and modern updates, this home is sure to attract interest. Do not miss the chance to make it your own.
