GUIDE PRICE £290,000 - £300,000. A beautifully presented and particularly spacious semi-detached home in Mapperley, combining an abundance of original period character with stylish modern touches. From the Minton-tiled entrance hall to the original doors, cornicing and ceiling roses, this is a home with real personality and plenty of features to discover.

The welcoming entrance hall leads into two generous reception rooms. The front lounge features an attractive cast-iron fireplace, while the rear reception room retains beautiful original cornicing and distinctive ceiling detailing, creating a characterful space for dining or entertaining. The modern fitted kitchen provides a practical contrast to the period features, complete with a five-ring gas hob, and also gives access to two useful cellar rooms, offering excellent additional storage. Upstairs, a spacious landing leads to two generous double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from fitted wooden wardrobes. There is also a separate store room and an impressive family bathroom featuring a four-piece suite and underfloor heating.

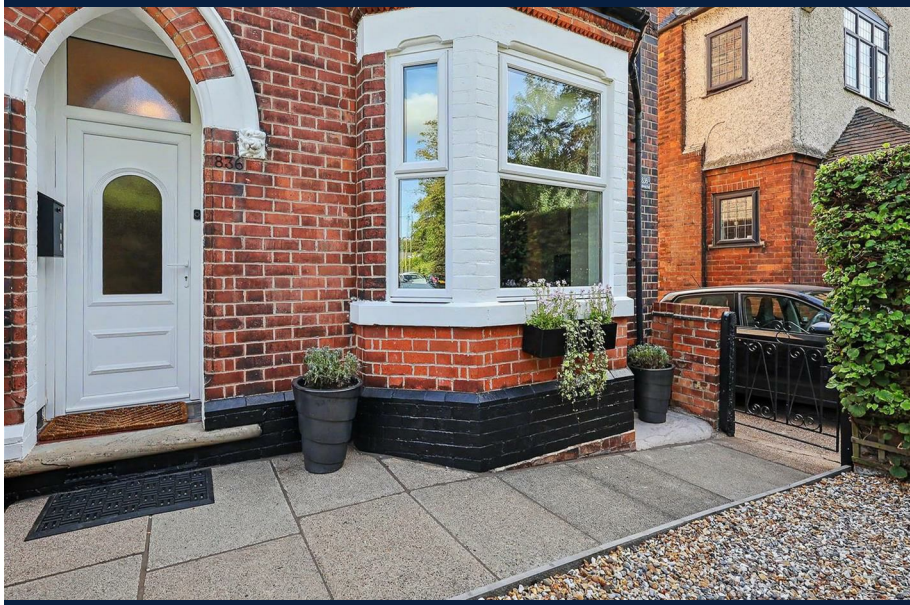

Outside, the property continues to impress. To the rear is gated off-street parking for two vehicles, together with an outside WC and a useful store room which includes space for a tumble dryer. Beyond the parking area lies a delightful fully enclosed lawned garden, with raised planting beds and a well-equipped corner garden shed. A particularly special feature is the covered outdoor entertaining area, complete with a fitted bar and surrounded by beautiful mature wisteria. This creates a wonderfully secluded garden retreat and a fantastic setting for entertaining family and friends.

A truly individual Mapperley home offering an appealing combination of period character, generous accommodation, practical outside space and a garden designed to be enjoyed.
