Overview

Located on Burton Road, Carlton, this delightful Victorian semi-detached house, built around 1900, offers a perfect blend of traditional elegance and modern convenience. Spanning an impressive 1,292 square feet, the property boasts three well-proportioned double bedrooms, large four piece bathroom, spacious downstairs accommodation and a downstairs toilet, making it an ideal family home.

As you enter, you are greeted by the entrance hallway, with original decorative coving and detailed plaster arch leading through to the dining room and separate bay-fronted living room, both with traditional style fireplaces with electric fires. The heart of the home is undoubtedly the spacious extended modern fitted kitchen, which features skylight windows over the sink area that flood the area with natural light while offering a lovely view of the garden.

The property also includes a UPVC double glazed conservatory, providing additional living space that seamlessly connects to the south east facing low maintenance hard-landscaped garden, ideal for outdoor gatherings or quiet moments in the sun. Upstairs there are two double bedrooms, and the traditional bathroom is a standout feature, complete with a beautiful feature bath and a large walk-in shower enclosure with rain shower, ensuring a luxurious experience. The third double bedroom is situated on the top floor.

Parking is a breeze with space for two vehicles, a valuable asset in this sought-after location. Residents will appreciate the convenience of being close to a Tesco supermarket, Carlton's main shopping area, great bus links and Netherfield train station, making commuting and daily errands effortless.

This modernised Victorian home is a rare find, combining period charm with contemporary living, and is sure to appeal to those seeking a comfortable and stylish residence in a vibrant community.
