493 Aldborough Road North, Newbury Park, Essex IG2 7SY

Price Guide: £650,000 - £700,000. We are privileged to offer this extended four-bedroom semi-detached home, offered with no onward chain, situated in one of Newbury Park's most desirable residential locations. The property features many fine original 1930s characteristics, including multiple bay windows, ornate stained-glass windows, and impressive double entrance doors. It has been sympathetically maintained to preserve its period charm, while offering excellent scope to enlarge and modernise (subject to planning) — a truly fine example of the era and an opportunity to create a family home blending contemporary living with original character. Inside, the home offers a welcoming hallway with original features leading to a front lounge and rear dining room with an open-plan aspect to an extended kitchen. A convenient ground-floor bedroom with adjoining wet room provides valuable versatility for guests or multigenerational living. The first floor provides three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, with access to a loft space offering excellent potential for further development (STPP). Externally, the property boasts a mature rear garden with established trees and shrubs, a paved patio, greenhouse and shed. The front driveway provides multiple off-street parking spaces and leads to an attached garage, ideal for conversion or side extension (subject to consent)— especially given the pedestrian side access offering a total side plot of approximately 12 ft. Ideally placed for Newbury Park Underground Station (Central Line, Zone 4) and Seven Kings Elizabeth Line, this home enjoys exceptional transport links into Stratford, the City and the West End. Highly regarded schools are within easy reach, while leisure spaces such as Seven Kings Park and Fairlop Waters Country Park offer excellent recreation options nearby
