AN IMPRESSIVE COUNTRY HOME SET WITHIN 26 ACRES OF LAND

Discreetly positioned within 26 acres of rolling pasture and mature woodland, and just a short walk from the vibrant heart of Prestwich, this remarkable country home offers a rare blend of rural seclusion, equestrian excellence and exciting future potential. Its scale, proximity to Prestwich centre and Manchester, and extensive existing infrastructure create an opportunity seldom found in Greater Manchester, equally suited to private residential living, serious equestrian use or considered development (subject to planning).

Approached via a sweeping private driveway, the property immediately conveys a sense of arrival. The detached farmhouse blends timeless country character with refined modern comfort, its original features and warm aesthetic harmonising beautifully with the surrounding landscape. Immaculately presented throughout, the home offers three generous bedrooms and three stylish bathrooms. At the heart of the home lies an inviting country kitchen, thoughtfully designed with quality cabinetry, premium appliances and ample space for dining and entertaining. Two spacious living areas provide versatility, one a cosy, intimate retreat, the other a larger reception room ideal for hosting family and guests.

Externally, the estate is exceptional. Designed with equestrian use at its core, the facilities include approximately twenty well-maintained stables, a dedicated tack room, workshop and extensive off-road parking. A professionally arranged arena provides excellent schooling conditions, while expansive grazing fields support year-round turnout. Woodland areas enhance privacy and create a peaceful natural setting, with scenic walks and riding routes directly from the doorstep.

The land and layout also present compelling development potential. With its enviable location and excellent transport links, this home offers scope for additional residential dwellings & equestrian business expansion.
