AN EXQUISITE FULLY RENOVATED DETACHED PROPERTY

The Ingles is an impressive, detached double-fronted family residence occupying a generous, mature plot on the edge of the picturesque village of Inglewhite. Thoughtfully enhanced and elegantly presented by the current owners, the property combines refined interiors, versatile living spaces and an enviable semi-rural setting.

An elegant reception hall leads to a spacious lounge, beautifully appointed dining kitchen, study and four generously proportioned bedrooms, complemented by three bathrooms, including two en suites. The superb dining kitchen features classic cabinetry, quartz work surfaces, a range cooker, integrated appliances, a wood-burning stove and bifold doors opening onto the garden, creating an inviting space for both everyday living and entertaining.

The principal bedroom benefits from a dressing room, concealed storage and a stylish en suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms offer flexibility for family and guests. Natural light, attractive outlooks and carefully considered design are evident throughout.

Externally, the property features electric gates, a walled front garden, off-road parking and garaging. The extensive rear grounds comprise mature lawns, established trees, colourful planting and private seating areas, offering a tranquil retreat with potential for further landscaping or extension, subject to planning permission.

Situated amid beautiful open countryside, The Ingles offers the tranquillity of village life alongside excellent connectivity to Preston, Garstang, Longridge and the motorway network. With highly regarded schools, scenic walking routes, country pubs and access to the Forest of Bowland and Fylde Coast, the property presents an exceptional opportunity to embrace a sophisticated yet relaxed Lancashire lifestyle. B4RN superfast broadband further enhances its suitability for modern family living and home working.
