AN EXQUISITE DETACHED STONE BUILT COTTAGE

Nestled in the heart of Whalley, on the tranquil Princess Mews, this exquisite detached stone-built home offers a unique blend of charm and modern comforts. Spanning 818 square feet, the property is ideally situated just a short stroll from the village's vibrant array of amenities, including shops, restaurants, bars, and the local primary school. Whalley Abbey and the train station are also conveniently within walking distance, making this location both practical and appealing.

Upon entering ,you are greeted by a stunning hallway, adorned with solid oak parquet flooring, leading to three well-proportioned bedrooms, all equipped with fitted wardrobes. The master bedroom benefits from underfloor heating, ensuring a warm and inviting atmosphere. A beautifully appointed three-piece bathroom completes the interior, making this home ideal for a hassle-free move.

The first floor accommodates a spacious open-plan lounge and dining area. This impressive space features a pitched ceiling that enhances the feeling of light and airiness, complemented by a feature picture window that frames delightful views. The attractive fitted breakfast kitchen, with its elevated outlook, is perfect for enjoying morning coffee.

Externally, the property boasts a cobbled driveway that leads to a magnificent private stone-walled patio garden. This outdoor space is thoughtfully landscaped with mature planted borders, shrubs, and trees, providing a serene retreat with distant views of Whalley Nab. Additionally, a large stone-built garage offers ample storage or potential for further use.

This delightful home is perfect for those seeking a peaceful village lifestyle, an investment opportunity, or a charming holiday let or Airbnb. With its characterful accommodation and prime location, this property is not to be missed.
