AN OUTSTANDING GRADE II LISTED COTTAGE PROPERTY

Nestled in the picturesque hamlet of Fern Hill, Rochdale, Owd House is a remarkable Grade II listed house that beautifully marries historic charm with modern living. Dating back to 1691, this stone-built cottage is a rare find, offering a spacious 1,496 sq ft of well-appointed accommodation that is both inviting and stylish.

As you approach the property, a delightful cobbled pathway leads you through the front garden, setting the tone for the timeless appeal that awaits inside. The interior boasts a wealth of period features, including exposed overhead beams, a striking stone staircase, and refurbished mullion windows with bespoke double glazing, all of which enhance the cottage's character. The lounge, complete with an inglenook fireplace, provides a warm and welcoming atmosphere, while the large bespoke dining kitchen is designed to complement the cottage's heritage, ensuring modern comforts are not overlooked.

The first floor houses three generously sized bedrooms, including a spacious main bedroom with ensuite facilities, alongside a well-presented family bathroom. Each room is designed to maximise space and light, making it an ideal home for families or those seeking a peaceful retreat.

Externally, the property features a south-facing front garden that offers stunning views across the open countryside, while the rear garden provides a private enclosed space perfect for relaxation. Additionally, the detached double garage is equipped with power and solar panels, contributing to the property's energy efficiency and providing a potential source of income. Off-road parking is available for three to four vehicles, along with a large wooden shed for extra storage.
