Once inside, it flows in two directions, to the left a large lounge dining space with French doors leading out to the rear garden. To the right, the Kitchen also overlooks the back and is adjacent to a separate study/playroom that could be used as a dining space or potentially another bedroom as many others have done in the area.

Stairs rise to the first floor where conveniently all three bedrooms are found, all of these are considered doubles whilst the main bedroom has both built in storage and an en-suite!

Other points worthy of a mention are an additional ground floor W/C, Garage and private parking found to the side of the property, whilst a wide, mainly laid to lawn rear garden has been fenced offering both security and privacy.

There is an abundance of parking outside and this is further enhanced with the property being found toward the end of the Close.
