ESTATE AGENTS

A Beautifully Presented Family Home, Offering Flexibility to be used as either Three or Four Bedrooms with a Favoured Westerly Aspect. Benefitting from a Private Drive, Garage & Located at the end of a Quiet Cul-De-Sac however, Excellent for Commuters due to Proximity to the A23.

Situation

Sayers Common is a village in the Mid Sussex District of West Sussex. With Hurstpierpoint, it forms one of the Mid Sussex parishes. It is located less than two miles north-west of Hurstpierpoint and just over a mile to Hickstead. The Village of Henfield with its beautiful Highstreet of Independent shops and the larger Town of Burgess Hill are also only a short journey away.

Situated until the 1990s on the main London to Brighton road it has become a more popular residential village since being partially bypassed by the new A23 road but access is always a main feature with this ever popular Hamlet and those who need to commute. The Duke of York Public House is a firm favourite after a local walk in the Countryside.

Description

A beautifully presented Family home comprising of wide entrance hallway, open plan contrasting Kitchen/Living area. Recently laid floors on the ground floor in a herringbone pattern lead towards double glazed French doors accessing the Westerly facing rear garden. Part of the Garage has been converted into a useful office or potential fourth Bedroom. Furthermore there is a useful Downstairs W/C. Stairs lead to the first floor landing where there is three good sized bedrooms, the main bedroom complete with en-suite, bedroom two is bright due to the double aspect and to complete a family Bathroom.

Outside there is a private driveway, remainder of the garage and rear garden with Westerly aspect.

As the property is on a private road, there is a charge of £416.60 per annum.
