Set within the idyllic setting of Upwey Village, this charming grade II Listed character cottage combines timeless period features with modern comfort, surrounded by beautiful gardens that enhance its peaceful appeal. The property enjoys a picturesque position within easy reach of Weymouth, the coast, and stunning countryside walks. Offering generous accommodation alongside a self-contained one-bedroom annex, it provides excellent versatility for extended family, guest accommodation, or potential income use.

The main house is rich in character, with exposed beams, stonework, and original features throughout. The ground floor includes a spacious living room centred around a feature fireplace, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. A second reception room serves as a formal dining area, while the country-style kitchen offers a range of fitted units, wooden worktops, and garden views. A separate utility room and cloakroom provide practicality and additional storage space.

Upstairs, the main house offers three bedrooms, each filled with natural light and showcasing the home's character. The principal bedroom enjoys generous proportions, while two further bedrooms provide flexibility for family, guests, or a home office. The first floor is served by a stylish bathroom featuring a freestanding bath and a separate shower room.

The annex is entirely self-contained, accessed separately from the main house for privacy. It features its own kitchen and living space, a conservatory overlooking the gardens, and a comfortable double bedroom, and stylish shower room making it perfect for guests or independent living.

Externally, the property is surrounded by beautifully landscaped gardens with mature planting, lawns, and multiple seating areas, offering a tranquil outdoor retreat. The outbuildings include a large garage, gym, store, and a dedicated garden/hot tub room, adding to the home's lifestyle appeal.

This charming cottage in the heart of Upwey Village perfectly captures the essence of Dorset living, combining character, comfort, and versatility in an idyllic countryside setting close to Weymouth and the Jurassic Coast.
