This stylish one bedroom retreat offers a ringside seat to Weymouth's illustrious bay with striking sea views from the living space and balcony alongside secure underground parking in an architecturally imposing and contemporary block. The home retains stylish open plan living accommodation with lift access to all floors and is presented with no onward chain.

A gated car park sits securely beneath the block, welcoming you into Olympia Heights; This home retains a designated space and several visitor bays tucked into the carpark and also owns a lock-up storage cupboard nearby.

Located on the first floor, a hallway off the communal landing services only this apartment with door into the corridor. The open plan living space dominates the apartment with exemplary proportions amplifying light and space; Patio doors slide through to the balcony with the direct sea views towards Greenhill Beach epitomising seaside living. The kitchen is finished in an attractive contemporary design with ample room throughout the accommodation for dining and relaxation.

Adjacent, a double bedroom further enjoys sea views with integrated storage and room for additional furnishings. The stylish family bathroom completes the apartment alongside a spacious cupboard.

Olympia Heights enjoys communal gardens to the rear with well maintained areas for relaxing and enjoying the sun.
