Positioned just moments from Weymouth's picturesque beach with OFF-ROAD PARKING, this stylish TOP-FLOOR apartment boasts TWO DOUBLE BEDROOMS, EACH WITH THEIR OWN ENSUITE, stunning rooftop views, and an OPEN-PLAN layout finished to a high standard. Set within an attractive period building on Westerhall Road, the property combines character features with modern convenience in a prime coastal location.

From the communal entrance, stairs rise to the second floor where the apartment opens into a central hallway leading to each principal room. The bright and spacious living area is defined by striking exposed beams and a vaulted ceiling, giving the space an bright and airy feel. A large feature window frames views across Weymouth's rooftops, creating a charming focal point. The adjoining kitchen is well-equipped with integrated appliances, shaker-style units and wood worktops, providing a practical and attractive space for cooking and entertaining.

Bedroom one lies at the back of the property of the property and offers impressive views from its distinctive glass apex. The room is generously proportioned and includes access to a en-suite bathroom with a full-size bath, complemented by exposed beams and contemporary fittings. with white suite, bold feature tiling and a sleek finish throughout. Bedroom two, located at the opposite end of the apartment, also benefits from its own en-suite, this time with a white suite, bold feature tiling and a sleek finish throughout.

The layout is highly functional, with both bedrooms separated by the main living space, ideal for shared living or guest accommodation. The apartment also benefits from allocated parking directly in front of the building and is just a short stroll from the town centre, beach and marina.
