A delightful character cottage located in a lovely backwater location in the heart of the village.

The Cottage
 This well presented cottage is offered for sale with a complete upper chain and has a number of character features. The living room is positioned at the rear of the property overlooking the pretty and enclosed rear garden and has a cast iron open grate fireplace. From the living room a door leads to the kitchen which has been refitted with a comprehensive range of cottage style base and eye level units with butchers block work tops over. There is a door opening to the front and stairs rising to the first floor landing where a door opens to the bathroom. Another door opens to a good size double bedroom with window to the rear and door opening to the bathroom.

Garden & Outbuilding
 The rear garden is fully enclosed by fencing with a gate providing pedestrian access to the side. The garden is mainly laid to flagstones with several areas laid to artificial grass. There are two brick enclosed boarders to one side and a door opening to a useful brick built outbuilding with power and light and providing possibilities (STNP) to be converted into an annex which could make an ideal air bnb or holiday let, a gym, treatment room or home office - the possibilities are endless!

The Location
 Potten End is a village in west Hertfordshire, England. It is located in the Chiltern Hills, two miles east-north-east of Berkhamsted, three miles north west of Hemel Hempstead and two miles south east of the National Trust estate of Ashridge. Nearby villages include Nettleden, Great Gaddesden and the hamlet of Frithsden. The joint Parish Council for Nettleden with Potten End CP 1 administers under Dacorum Borough Council.

At the centre of the village there is a Green and pond. The village largely comprises residential properties, together with Holy Trinity Church; 3 a primary/junior school Potten End First School; 4 a village shop; and two public houses, Martin's Pond and The Plough. A number of small businesses are also based in the village. Recreational facilities include cricket and football fields, bowls club and a children's grassed play area. A Village Hall provides community use for a wide variety of regular and special events.
