The garden is mainly laid to lawn and enclosed by a range of fencing.

The Location

Ivinghoe Aston is a small, tranquil hamlet situated at the foot of the Chilterns, on the edge of the Vale of Aylesbury and close to other picturesque villages, Ashridge Forest, Grand Union canal and Tring reservoirs. Local facilities include the Village Swan public house which is owned by the villagers and offers good food as well as a focal meeting point, while the nearby village of Ivinghoe provides a wider range of facilities including a post office, general stores, good local pubs, facility of pharmacy, doctors' surgery and a primary school.

A number of towns - On your doorstep!

The historic market towns of Tring, Leighton Buzzard and Berkhamsted offer an eclectic mix of independent, family run boutiques and restaurants, together with national High Street names. Further shopping and recreational facilities can be found at Aylesbury, Hemel Hempstead and Milton Keynes.

Transport Links

Communication links both into London and heading North are excellent. The A5 is around six miles away, while the M1 is approximately 9 miles. The A41 bypass south of Tring provides dual carriageway access direct to the M25. Mainline railway stations can be found at Tring, Cheddington (both approx 8 minute drive) and Leighton Buzzard, with travelling times to London Euston from approximately 35 minutes.

Education In The Area

There are a number of good primary schools in the area and grammar schools, including Buckinghamshire Grammar School which the property is in catchment of, in Aylesbury. For those wishing to use the independent sector, Tring Park School for the Performing Arts and Berkhamsted School both have superb reputations.
