The Land

Well-enclosed parcels of land of approximately 1.8 acres each, benefiting from a timber stable block, making them ideal for private equestrian or hobby farming use. The land is level to gently sloping, with established boundaries and good natural drainage.. Mains water available. The existing building provides useful shelter and storage and offer immediate functionality for horse owners or livestock keepers. Direct gated access from Nettleden Road. Potential long-term strategic or conservation interest (subject to planning)
Purchasers should make their own enquiries regarding any alternative uses or development potential.
