A chance to purchase a home with terrific potential in a sought after location on a large plot.

Ground Floor

The solid timber front door opens to a good size entrance hall which has stairs rising to the first floor landing and doors opening to the ground floor rooms. Directly to the left hand side and over looking the front is a formal living room with open grate fireplace and bay window. There is a dining room which has a window to the rear and is positioned directly next to the kitchen which is fitted with a range of base and eye level units and opens directly to a useful garden room. The garden room has a door to the garage with ground floor cloakroom and also has a door opening to the rear garden.

First Floor

An exceptionally spacious landing area has a window to the front and doors opening to all three large double bedrooms. The landing area provides ample space for the addition of a second staircase to the attic space which is prime for conversion STNP. The family bathroom is just off the landing area and is fitted with a white three piece suite.

Outside

There is a driveway to the front of the property which leads to the integral garage with metal up and over door. There is a garden area with mature planting providing an excellent privacy screen to the front. The rear garden is an undoubted feature of this wonderful home. Mainly laid to lawn the rear garden boasts a Southerly aspect with a timber framed garden shed. Fully enclosed with a range of mature planting to all boundaries.

The Location

Abbots Langley is the home to the only Englishman to ever become Pope. Nicholas Breakspeare was born in Abbots Langley in approximately 1100. He became Pope Adrian IV (1154 -1159).
