The kitchen is galley style and has been fitted with a range of base and eye level units and opens to the breakfast room from where the rear garden and utility room are accessible. The utility room opens to the study, another well proportioned room with sliding doors opening to the rear garden. Also accessed from the utility room is the internal courtyard, a useful covered storage space from where you can access the garage.

First Floor

Ascending the stairs you pass three feature stained glass windows which flood the hallway and landing with natural light. From the landing all three bedrooms are accessible with bedrooms one and two being generous doubles and the third being a well sized single. The bathroom is fitted with a white four piece suite comprising low level WC, wash hand basin, bath and shower cubicle.

Outside

To the front of the property is a driveway providing parking for three vehicles. The rear garden is a real feature of this property extending to well over 150ft in length. The majority of the garden is laid to lawn with a patio area to the rear of the property. There is a greenhouse and a large timber shed and the garden is surrounded by mature trees and bushes providing an exceptional degree of privacy.

The Location

Hemel Hempstead is a popular new town in Hertfordshire with a mixture of new, modern and older architecture and enjoys numerous open green spaces including the recently rejuvenated Jellicoe Water Gardens in the town centre. The town centre has recently been regenerated and is now a vibrant busy attraction. The Marlow's indoor shopping centre offers chain and independent shops whilst the outside Riverside boasts a number of larger chains and a Pizza Express Restaurant.

Adeyfield was the first planned neighbourhood to be built in the postwar new town expansion of Hemel Hempstead. Adeyfield has a village centre, known as the Queen's Square. There are many different convenience stores in the square, most notably the Co-operative Supermarket, and two branches of Lloyd's Pharmacy. The square was named after the visit paid by The Queen in 1952 when she laid the foundation stone for the Church of St Barnabas. Adeyfield is home to The Adeyfield Academy, the major secondary school in the area and two primary schools.

Travel Links

Situated 24 miles to the north west of London and conveniently served by the M1 and M25 motorways, Hemel Hempstead has quickly grown in popularity in the last few years. We have seen more migration from the London suburbs, largely due to its fantastic commuter links including the London Northwestern Railway Overground train to London Euston taking only 35 minutes. Both London Luton and London Heathrow airports are easily accessible via the M1 and M25 respectively.

Education

The property benefits from having a number of local primary schools within less than one mile, and for senior pupils, both Hemel Hempstead School and Longdean School are just over a mile away. Both have sixth form facilities. Abbot's Hill School is a local independent school for girls aged three to seventeen years, while Chesham Prep & Berkhamsted Independent Schools for boys and girls are only a short drive.
