The Property
Currently the accommodation comprises a shop front which is currently trading as a fish and chips take away shop which leads to a dedicated kitchen area. An internal office room has double doors opening to a lean-to/store which in turn has double doors opening to the garden where there is a brick built outhouse and a garden laid to lawn with pathway providing access down the side and to the front of the property. At first floor level there are three bedrooms and a fitted shower room.

The Location
Located near Apsley and nestled between Kings Langley and Hemel Hempstead, this home offers the perfect balance of convenience and charm. Commuters benefit from direct train services at nearby Apsley Station to London Euston in just 30 minutes, while major road links like the M25 and M1 are easily accessible. The area's appeal centres on the picturesque Grand Union Canal and Apsley Lock, ideal for relaxing waterside walks and enjoying a vibrant community atmosphere. Local favourites such as the Papermill Pub, excellent shops, and amenities support a friendly, village-style lifestyle. Families will appreciate access to well-regarded schools nearby, making this a great place to call home.
