A stunning detached character property located in one of the area's most prestigious villages.

Ground Floor
The ground floor is comprised of sophisticated reception rooms that lead through to a refined kitchen/dining space, overlooking views of the immaculately maintained garden. The bi-fold doors create the perfect flow for alfresco dining and hosting. There is a separate utility and boot room which has access to the garden and a double garage which has been dedicated to a private home gym space.

First Floor
Upstairs offers flexible accommodation made up of 5 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. The sumptuous main bedroom with bespoke oak wooden floors has an airy and bright en-suite. The rest of the bedrooms are colour drenched and each have their own charm and personality.

Outside Ground & Annex
The tranquil garden is bordered by an array of trees creating a peaceful and secluded atmosphere. The stylish annex is open plan, creating the perfect space for an option of multigenerational living.

Location
One of Hertfordshire's most picturesque and sought after villages, pleasantly set on the edge of the Chilterns and a short walk of the village. Chipperfield village is centred around the Common which extends to over 100 acres, principally woodland, providing lovely walks, bridle paths and a fine cricket pitch. The village has a historic church, pubs and village shops. Watford, Hemel Hempstead and Berkhamsted provide supermarkets and more comprehensive shopping facilities. Chipperfield is within easy access of the M1, M25 and M40 motorways providing good communication to all parts of the country. The property is approximately 15 minutes from Chorleywood tube and mainline station and also 10 minutes from the London Euston rail connection at Kings Langley. There is an abundance of good schools nearby, both preparatory and secondary, such as York House, Royal Masonic School for Girls, St Clement Danes, Merchant Taylors, St Helens and Berkhamsted School not to mention Tring Park Performing Arts School.
