The kitchen is well-appointed, with a range of base and eye level units to include a stone work top and a number of integrated appliances with a window to the front overlooking your allocated parking bays. A modern cloakroom completes the ground floor.

Outside

Outside, the southerly-facing rear garden is laid to lawn, with a patio area accessed through bifold doors from the living room. There is a pedestrian gate to the side leading to the front while the borders of the rear garden are well stocked with mature planting with several specimen trees on the rear boundary providing an excellent degree of privacy.

The Location

Tring is a pretty market town on the edge of the Chiltern Hills, mentioned in 1086 in the Domesday book. The town offers a wide range of recreational facilities, including a branch of the Natural History Museum, the Grand Union Canal, Pendley Court Theatre, and various sporting activities. Local shopping facilities are varied and include a selection of independent boutiques, plus larger chains such as Tesco and M&S Simply Food. There are also a number of restaurants and cafes, including Costa, Black Goo, Culture Bakery and Nonnas supper club to name but a few. The slightly larger market town of Berkhamsted is only around 5 miles away, and offers a further range of shops and facilities, including Waitrose and Starbucks. Buckinghamshire's County Town, Aylesbury, is around 8 miles and boasts a multiplex cinema, shopping centres, and a recently completed £42 million theatre.

Education In The Area

The area boasts some excellent educational facilities, including Tring School and Grove Road primary and junior school. For those wishing to use the independent sector, Tring Park School for the Performing Arts, Berkhamsted School, and Chesham Preparatory School all have superb reputations.

Transport Links

London is easily accessible. Both commuters to town, and those seeking some retail therapy at Westfield, are well catered for with Tring station providing regular and direct train services to London Euston and Shepherds Bush in a little over 40 minutes. Road links nearby include the A41, which provides dual carriageway access direct to the M25 (J20).
