To the front of the property is a hardstanding driveway providing parking for two cars. There is a garden area to the front of the property which is laid to lawn with a mature border underneath the kitchen window. A pedestrian gate to the side leads to the rear garden which has been laid to flagstone paving for low maintenance. There are two boarders to the side and one to the rear of the property and the rear garden is fully enclosed by fencing. Being Westerly facing in aspect the garden is a real sun trap and also has a very private outlook.

The Location

Tring is a pretty market town on the edge of the Chiltern Hills, mentioned in 1086 in the Domesday book. The town offers a wide range of recreational facilities, including a branch of the Natural History Museum, the Grand Union Canal, Pendley Court Theatre, and various sporting activities.

Local shopping facilities are varied and include a selection of independent boutiques, plus larger chains such as Tesco and M&S Simply Food. There are also a number of restaurants and cafes, including a wide variety of independent coffee shops and restaurants.

The area boasts some excellent educational facilities, including Tring School. For those wishing to use the independent sector, Tring Park School for the Performing Arts, Berkhamsted School, and Chesham Preparatory School all have superb reputations.

The slightly larger market town of Berkhamsted is only around 5 miles away, and offers a further range of shops and facilities, including Waitrose, WH Smiths, Waterstones and a further selection of restaurants and bars.
