The Location
Steeped in history and located in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in the Chiltern Hills, Tring is surrounded by beautiful countryside. Perfectly placed in the highly sought after Grove area of this picturesque, traditional market town, this property offers the very best of rural living combined with the convenience of modern life. Just a short walk from your front door, there's an abundance of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and bars to enjoy, while high street favourites and larger department stores are just a short drive away in neighbouring Aylesbury and Hemel Hempstead. A twice-monthly farmers market sells an array of local produce, crafts and jewellery, while Tesco and Marks & Spencer Supermarkets provide your everyday essentials. Offering hundreds of miles to explore on foot, horseback or by bike, the Chilterns provides an ever-changing landscape of reservoirs and rolling hills that can be enjoyed at leisure.

Education In The Area
Just a short walk from the property, Grove Road Primary School and Tring Secondary School were both rated as 'good' in their recent Ofsted inspections. Tring also boasts the world renowned Tring Park for the performing arts school.

Travel Links & Local Attractions
Attractions such as Whipsnade Zoo and Warner Bros Studio Tour London (home of the Harry Potter experience), are accessible in less than an hour, and Tring has its own Natural History Museum, which is hugely popular. Other local highlights include Tring Brewery, the Grand Union Canal and Champneys Health Resort & Spa. Sports and leisure centres are close to home with a large sports centre being a couple of minutes walk away and The Snow Centre in Hemel Hempstead less than a 20-minute car journey. Just 1 mile from the property, Tring railway station provides regular direct trains into London in around 40 minutes. The town is also well served by road connections with the A41 and M25 all easily accessible.
