The Property

With miles of countryside walks on the doorstep, yet historic market towns only a short drive away, Bramble Barn offers the very best of both worlds

The property's exterior is a striking combination of black weatherboarding and glass. Internally, there is a prevalence of beautiful oak throughout, including doors, flooring and the staircase. This incredibly energy efficient home has been rated 'A' for energy performance, with underfloor heating throughout, ground source heat pump and solar PV panels.

Ground Floor

A spacious entrance hall welcomes you into the property. With solid oak floors, doors and staircase rising to the first floor the entrance hall sets the standard immediately of the high quality throughout this property. A door to the left hand side opens to the third bedroom which boasts an ensuite shower room. A door immediately ahead of you opens to a ground floor cloakroom and there is also a dedicated utility room which is fitted with a range of units and space and plumbing for automatic washing machine. To the right hand side double doors open to a spectacular open plan kitchen/dining/living room. With a cast iron wood burning stove and exposed timber beams, there are two sets of French doors opening to the rear garden. The kitchen area has two windows to the side and is fitted with a comprehensive range of based and eye level units with work top over. There are a range of integrated appliances to include an induction hob, eye level double oven, fridge/freezer and dishwasher.

First Floor

The spacious landing area has doors opening to both the spacious double bedrooms which both benefit from luxuriously appointed ensuite bathrooms. The principal bedroom has French doors and two windows to the rear sucking in some of the areas finest views of the Ivinghoe Beacon. The main bedroom also has the advantage of a walk in dressing room.

Outside

There is driveway parking directly to the front of the property and double doors opening to a workshop/storage outbuilding. Directly to the rear of the property is an extensive timber deck which wraps around one side of the garden where the fully insulated home office with power and light is positioned. The main portion of the garden is laid to lawn and enclosed by a range of fencing.

The Location

Ivinghoe Aston is a small, tranquil hamlet situated at the foot of the Chilterns, on the edge of the Vale of Aylesbury and close to other picturesque villages. Local facilities include the Village Swan public house which is owned by the villagers and offers excellent food as well as a focal meeting point, while the nearby village of Ivinghoe provides a wider range of facilities including a post office, general stores, fine dining restaurant and a primary school.

On Your Doorstep

The historic market towns of Tring, Leighton Buzzard and Berkhamsted offer an eclectic mix of independent, family run boutiques and restaurants, together with national High Street names. Further shopping and recreational facilities can be found at Aylesbury, Hemel Hempstead and Milton Keynes.

Transport Links

Communication links both into London and heading North are excellent. The A5 is around six miles away, while the M1 is approximately 9 miles. The A41 bypass south of Tring provides dual carriageway access direct to the M25. Mainline railway stations can be found at Leighton Buzzard, Cheddington and Tring, with travelling times to London Euston from approximately 35 minutes.

Education In The Area

There are a number of good primary schools in the area and grammar schools can be found in Aylesbury. For those wishing to use the independent sector, Tring Park School for the Performing Arts and Berkhamsted School both have superb reputations.
