The Location

Set at the foot of the Chiltern Hills, Aston Clinton is a countryside haven with all the convenience of being in close proximity to major rail and road links. This sought after village exudes history and charm, which can be seen in the 14th Century St Michael and All Angels parish church, as well as the listed Anthony Hall and the glorious rolling hills. The surrounding towns of Tring, Wendover and Aylesbury offer plenty of leisure opportunities, including shopping, theatre, golf and spas. If you're looking for a hidden gem or big brand name, you'll find an array of boutiques and shops to choose from. Enjoy a relaxing afternoon at Champneys spa or catch the latest theatrical performance in Aylesbury. If you are more of a thrill seeker, enjoy the views amongst the tree-tops at Go Ape in Wendover. There is something for everyone, the only problem you'll have is choosing what you'll try first.

Transport Links

Perfect for commuters, Aston Clinton is in close proximity to major road and rail links. The Chiltern line runs from Stoke Mandeville station, getting you into London Marylebone in under an hour. The West Coast Mainline runs from Tring Station providing an alternate route to London Euston in less than 40 minutes, as well as access to Milton Keynes, Birmingham and Manchester. Village Amenities

Aston Clinton includes two Gastropubs within easy walking distance, both with indoor and garden dining spaces, and both rated excellent on TripAdvisor. The Bell Inn where Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor dined in the Sixties and Evelyn Waugh enjoyed a drink whilst teaching at the Aston Clinton School, and The Oak, a 500 year old half-timbered thatched pub. Also in the village are two further pubs, a coffee and cake shop and both a Chinese and Indian restaurant and take away. Local shopping needs are met by the village shop which includes Post Office facilities and a Budgens local supermarket based at the Shell petrol station. A large doctor's surgery, a dental practice and a pharmacy are all in walking distance as is the village church dating to the 14th century and the Baptist Church. The village benefits from the huge Aston Clinton Park, formerly part of the gardens of a Rothschild house with views of the Chiltern Hills and, in addition to open fields and a stream, football pitches, a cricket pitch, tennis courts, childrens' play areas and a licensed café and community hub. A haven for walkers and nature lovers, two branches of the Grand Union Canal frame the village and it is in walking distance of the Forestry Commission maintained Wendover Woods, the Tring Reservoirs and the Aylesbury Ring walking path. There are a wide range of village societies and activities for residents to get involved in.
