The property - ground floor
Offered for sale with high specification fittings throughout, the ground floor has an entrance hall with cloakroom comprising low level WC and wash basin to the left hand side and a door opening to a spacious living room to the right hand side. From the entrance hall stairs rise to the first floor landing and directly ahead of you a door opens to a wonderful open plan kitchen/dining room with a range of fitted base and eye level units and a host of integrated appliances. From here a window over looks the Southerly facing corner plot rear garden and French doors open to a good size patio area.

First floor

The first floor landing has doors opening to all three bedrooms and to the family bathroom which is fitted with a high quality suite comprising panelled bath with shower over, wash basin and WC. The principal bedroom boasts a spacious en-suite shower room.

Outside

To the side of the property is a tandem driveway space providing private parking for two cars. Directly to the rear of the property is a large flagstone patio area which leads to the main portion of the garden which is laid to lawn with several raised borders. The rear garden is Southerly facing in aspect and due to it being a corner plot ensures the property retains excellent scope to extend without taking too much of the garden away (STNP).

The best of town & country

Set on ancient Icknield Way as it runs past the thriving market town of Tring in West Hertfordshire, Roman Park is ideal for enjoying the best of both town and country. Surrounded by glorious Chilterns countryside - and just a short walk from the bustling centre of Tring, with its independent shops, bars, restaurants and excellent schools and amenities - Roman Park is a delightful place to call home. It's excellently connected by road, and by rail too, for commuting into London.

Engulfed by countryside

Life at Roman Park is a breath of fresh air: a semi-rural retreat in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, bounded by the rolling chalk hills of the Chilterns, the dramatic sweeping landscape of the Vale of Aylesbury and the ancient woods of the Ashridge Estate and Wendover. In the town itself, you'll find the award-winning Tring Memorial Gardens, and to the south Tring Park offers 264 acres of woodlands and green spaces for leisure, sports and walking.

Tring - a thriving & vibrant market town
Tring is an attractive and affluent small town with a wealth of independent shops and artisan boutiques, popular pubs, bars and cafes and an outstanding choice of restaurants. It has held market status since 1315, and along with the weekly Charter Market there's a fortnightly Farmers Market, where you can choose from a mouth-watering range of local produce and the speciality foods which Tring offers in abundance. Berkhamsted, just six miles away, is also great for shopping and leisure.

First class for education

For families with children of school age, Tring has first class educational options. Primary schools include Goldfield Infants and Nursery School, Grove Road and Dundale Primary Schools and Bishops Wood CofE Junior School. Tring School offers local secondary education, while Tring Park School for the Performing Arts provides specialist education. Nearby, Berkhamsted provides a range of additional options and Aylesbury, less than 10 miles away, has highly rated schools at all levels.
