The property features three reception rooms, each with distinct purpose. To the left is the reading home office which could also double as a snug if required. Stretching across the rear of the property is the kitchen/dining/family room. Here, the well thought out kitchen design allows parents to prepare the evening meal whilst being able to keep an eye on the children playing in the garden, or whilst they are sat at the table doing their homework. A sociable space that allows you to gather family and friends and catch up on all their latest news. There is both space for a formal dining area to enjoy the family Sunday roast or why not utilise the less formal breakfast bar for the midweek meal or the breakfast rush.
