Location

Roche is a popular village situated 6 miles North of St Austell and within 1½ miles of the main A30 Trunk Road, giving access towards the Cathedral City of Truro approximately 15 miles away. There are local shops, amenities, a school, sporting facilities and a Doctors Surgery all within a few minutes walk from the property. There are many fine walks to be enjoyed in the near vicinity including the Goss Moor trails with the historic Roche Rock, both the Eden Project and Lost Gardens of Heligan are only a short drive away. St Austell town centre offers shopping, recreational facilities, mainline railway station and leisure centre together with primary and secondary schools and supermarkets. The town of Fowey is approximately 13 miles away and is well known for its restaurants and coastal walks. Also a wonderful location to explore both the North and South Coasts.

Directions

From St Austell head out to the village of Roche, from the distributor road, at the roundabout take the third exit sign posted Trezaise. Head up the hill taking the left hand turn onto Trezaise Road into the village. Follow the road along past the Cricket and Football Club on your right and Children's playpark, at the mini roundabout turn right and then past Roche Primary School on your left hand side, Roche Rock will appear on the right hand side. Just past the School turn left into the residential development sign posted St Michaels Way follow the road along for approximately 400 yards the development of Kew Kernow will appear in the far right hand corner. Boards will be erected for convenience.
