Location:

Carbis is a small hamlet located 0.9 miles (1.4 km) east of the village of Roche in the civil parish of Roche, and occupies undulating terrain characteristic of mid-Cornwall, with an elevation of approximately 151 metres (495 feet) above sea level, contributing to a landscape of rolling hills interspersed with small streams. This rural setting encompasses agricultural land and remnants of former industrial clay and mine working pits, which blend into the natural environment.

Directions:

From St Austell head out to the village of Roche and take the roundabout by the school which will be on your left hand side and Roche Rock on your right. Carry on for approximately half of a mile and the property will be set back via the lane access on the left hand side. The lane leads down to the gated parking area and formal gardens. To the front a brick paved wide pathway, leads to the front door.
