Outside:

To the front of the property is a gated tarmac driveway which allows parking for numerous vehicles. Wide steps lead to the main entrance bordered by slate coping stones. Rustic solid oak sleepers encase the lawned upper tiered garden, whilst the lower lawn is framed by the patio which encases three sides of the property and a wide path to the side gate and a lovely raised planted border.

To the rear is wood fencing providing a good degree of privacy. The Cornish granite stone wall running the length of the plot separates the traditional village feel from the contemporary fresh vibe that the house radiates. The paved patio sweeps around to the rear of the property where the air source heating unit can be located, tucked away in the corner. The property occupies a private setting in this extremely popular village location.
