Location

St Austell town centre is situated approximately 7 miles away and offers a wide range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities. There is a mainline railway station and leisure centre together with primary and secondary schools and supermarkets. The picturesque port of Charlestown and the award winning Eden Project are within a short drive. The town of Fowey is approximately 35 miles away and is well known for its restaurants and coastal walks. The Cathedral city of Truro is approximately 13 miles from the property.

Directions

From St Austell head out to St Stephen, passing through Trewoon and High Street. Upon entering St Stephen, climbing the hill passing Hawkins garage on your right, towards the heart of the village. Viewers are advised to turn right onto The Square. Communal parking is available on a first come - first served basis in front of the Queens Head Public House. The property is located on the opposite side of the road, opposite the turning onto The Square. Those unfamiliar with the area, please ensure you DO NOT take the right turn before The Square as this is a one way system and you be entering in the wrong direction!

Outside

Although the property has no official parking, directly opposite is the one way system with parking available on a first come first served basis. To the front of the property is the main front access hall, to the left hand side of the terrace a hard standing walk way provides access to the side entrance door.

To the left hand side of the walk way is an elevated planting bed. Beyond this steps lead up to the spacious rear garden.

The rear garden is laid to a couple of areas, the lower area being lawn with small patio directly to the rear of the property, an elevated planting area offers fantastic scope. To the left hand side of this planting area is a hard standing walk way providing access to the top section of the garden, complete with block built external shed.

The left hand boundary wall is the second wall to the left, the middle wall forms part of the sale, 26 Gwindra also owns the elevated planted area to the left hand side of the walk way. The properties boundaries are left hand stone wall. The boundaries are clearly defined with stone wall to the left, stone wall to the rear and wood fencing to the right hand side.

Interested parties are advised that the property has two title numbers. One is for the main house and garden, the second title number refers to a small sliver of ground from the patio area to the rear of the property which narrows to a point as it reaches towards the stone shed to the rear. There is a copy of the title information available in our office available for genuinely interested parties to look at.

We are advised that this property is believed to be the old Blacksmiths for the village and is available for sale for the first time since 1948.

No heating at the property - There is a Park Ray but this has not been used for a number of years, would need to be checked before use.

The chimney has been capped and needs lining.
