LOCATION

The property is situated just off the main town centre half way up High Cross Street from where it is a very short walk from the bus and railway station. The rear side of the development is off East Hill. The A30 trunk road providing quick access out of the County is less than 6 miles to the North whilst the airport at Newquay is a drive of approximately 30 minutes. St Austell offers an excellent range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities and Truro with its comprehensive range of services and facilities is approximately 14 miles to the West.

PROPERTY

The Old Post Office and Sorting Rooms is a substantial premises fronting High Cross Street and with vehicular access off East Hill also. The "front" section has planning for conversion into 9 residential units (please see agents planning notes) The rear section, the former sorting rooms, and lower former parking area has planning consent for 24 new build units.

PLANNING

Planning has been granted to the "front" under ref: PA18/00915 dated 15th March 2018 for conversion into eight residential apartments by way of confirmed Permitted Development Rights. Planning Permission has been granted to the rear, the former sorting rooms and parking/yard area under ref: PA24/04294 dated 25th April 2025 for twenty-four new build apartments (Demolition of existing B8 warehouse and erection of 24 (C3) apartments over four floors with parking), subject to conditions. We are advised by the seller's architect that Grant of Conditional Planning Permission has been confirmed under ref: PA24/04294 with "zero S106 commitments". Planning Permission, which has now lapsed, was originally granted on 1st March 2018 under ref: PA17/11826 for two apartments to the front. Interested applicants are advised to make their own enquiries with the Local Planning Authority. A copy of the Planning Permissions and accompanying documents may be downloaded from the Local Planning Authority website, cornwall.gov.uk. Tel: 0300 1234 151.
