Location

St Blazey has a good range of local facilities including small supermarkets, hairdressers, petrol filling station, fish and chip shop and sub post office. St Blazey also has its football club and as noted provides quick access to the A390. The larger village of Par with its more comprehensive range of shopping facilities together with main line railway station and large sandy beach is a very short drive and there are primary schools in nearby Biscovey and Tywardreath. A wide range of facilities can be found in the nearby town St Austell with its secondary schools and is a drive of about 4 miles. The town of Fowey is approximately 4 miles away and is well known for its restaurants and coastal walks. The picturesque port of Charlestown and the award winning Eden Project are within a short drive. The Cathedral city of Truro is approximately 20 miles.

Directions

From St Austell head towards Par, passing over the roundabout with the Britannia Inn on the right hand side. Continue along St Austell road (A390) through Doubletrees and continue down Rose Hill. Pass through the traffic lights at the bottom of the hill and after approximately 200 yards, opposite the shop on the right hand side of the road, turn left on to Churchfield Place. Proceed to the top of the no through road where the property is tucked away in the left hand corner. The right hand side garage of the three on the left belongs to number 12 - viewers are welcome to park in front of the garage when viewing.
