Location

Mevagissey is a picturesque fishing village nestled between Pentewan and Gorran Haven. The village is steeped in history with many quaint fishermen's cottages set within cobbled streets. Local facilities include a primary school, an activity centre, small Mini Market, doctor's surgery, chemist, various gift shops and several restaurants and public houses. The town of St Austell is approximately 6 miles away and offers a wide range of shopping, large supermarkets and recreational facilities. There is a mainline railway station and leisure centre together with primary and secondary schools. The charming port of Charlestown and the award-winning Eden Project are within a short drive, as is the world renowned Lost Gardens of Heligan.

Directions

Head out on the B3273 from St. Austell taking the coastal road up passing the left turn to Pentewan. Proceed in the direction of Mevagissey. At the top of the hill, at the cross roads, turn left onto Old Road. Proceed to the roundabout passing straight over (the first left turn) and proceed down School Hill, passing the School on the right hand side of the road. Continue, down the hill to the bottom of the road. At the bottom as the road bends off to the right, turn left. Proceed down the hill onto Cliff Street. The property is located on the right hand side of the road and within close proximity of Mevagissey Harbour. Viewers are advised to park at the top of the hill and walk down to the property. NOTE: There is no parking available after the garages on the right hand side, part way down the hill. The other way to get to the property would be to park in one of the car parks in the fishing village. From St Georges Square, walk up the passage opposite the War Memorial. Follow the walk way turning left onto Cliff Street. Proceed up the hill where number 50 is located on the left hand side. Note: The property is not viewable from the road. The property is accessed via a Grey painted wooden gate - We have pictured the access gate, the last picture on the details for viewers convenience.
