66 Lostwithiel Street, Fowey, Cornwall, PL23 1BQ

The Location

Fowey is regarded as one of the most attractive waterside communities in the county. Particularly well known as a popular sailing centre, the town has two thriving sailing clubs, a famous annual Regatta and excellent facilities for the keen yachtsman. For a small town Fowey provides a good range of shops and businesses catering for most day to day needs. The immediate area is surrounded by many miles of delightful coast and countryside much of which is in the ownership of the National Trust. Award winning restaurants, small boutique hotels, excellent public houses etc, have helped to establish Fowey as a popular, high quality, destination.

There are several excellent golf courses within easy reach, many world class gardens are to be found in the immediate area and the fascinating Eden Project with its futuristic biomes is just 5 miles to the north west. There are good road links to the motorway system via the A38/A30. Railway links to London, Paddington, can be made locally at Par, and St. Austell and there are flights to London and other destinations from Newquay.

The Property

This lovely Cornish cottage has been a main home for the owner but would equally make a stunning second home or holiday let. Renovated by the vendor during their ownership, the cottage has retained much character but with a contemporary style.

The accommodation is presented in good order and has a lovely feel, especially in the open plan kitchen/ dining room which has the wow factor and is a great entertaining space. There is a sitting room and bedroom on the ground floor.

Stairs from the entrance hall lead to the first floor where there are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

A large, walled and secluded garden is a particular feature of the cottage and attracts sun all day.

Gas central heating. Contents by separate negotiation.
