The Location
 Fowey is regarded as one of the most attractive waterside communities in the County. Particularly well known as a popular sailing centre, the town has two thriving sailing clubs, a famous annual Regatta and excellent facilities for the keen yachtsman. For a small town Fowey provides a good range of shops and businesses catering for most day to day needs. The immediate area is surrounded by many miles of delightful coast and countryside much of which is in the ownership of the National Trust. Award winning restaurants, small boutique hotels, excellent public houses etc, have helped to establish Fowey as a popular, high quality, destination.

There are several excellent golf courses within easy reach, many world class gardens are to be found in the immediate area and the fascinating Eden Project with its futuristic biomes is just 5 miles to the north west.

There are good road links to the motorway system via the A38/A30. Railway links to London, Paddington, can be made locally at Par, Bodmin Parkway and St. Austell and there are flights to London and other destinations from Newquay.

The Property
 Residing in one of the most exceptional locations in Fowey and offering fabulous views to the harbour, Polruan and out to sea, this lovely location is one of the most enviable sites in the town. 35 Hanson Drive is a sizeable, family house, standing in large grounds and gardens, with a garage and room above.

Offered to the market for the first time in nearly 30 years, the property has been a much loved family home and now offers scope for modernisation or complete redevelopment if required. The large gardens have a separate access from Gallants Drive and there is scope for a separate plot.

Arranged over 2 floors, the accommodation is generous and makes the most of the wonderful views with 8 sea facing rooms including the open plan living space located on the first floor and wonderful balcony

The Accommodation
 The front door opens to the entrance hall with stairs leading to both the first floor and lower ground floor. A door also opens to the garage.

The first floor offers the most exceptional views to the harbour and sea from all of the main rooms. The large sitting room has sliding doors opening on to the balcony, a sizeable area for large table and chairs and sofas to enjoy the stunning views over the gardens and out to sea. Windows also have views up to Pont and over the adjoining field, owned by The National Trust.

There is a study and dining room/snug accessed from the hallway, both with lovely sea views, along with a bathroom. The kitchen has wall and base units and again, a lovely harbour and expansive sea view.

The lower ground floor has 4 double bedrooms, 3 of which face South over the harbour to Polruan. There are 2 bathrooms and a further kitchen/utility room with views over the terrace and out to sea and a door opening to a pathway at the side of the property, leading down to the garden and terrace running along the South side of the property.

There is a double garage, with a door opening to another pathway on the other side of the property, leading down to the garden and terrace. The garage is accessed from the entrance hall. From the garage stairs lead up to a first floor, with Velux windows. This area has been used as a hobby room and could be used as additional accommodation or an ideal work from home office as required.
