4 Webb Street, Fowey, PL23 1AP

Fowey is regarded as one of the most attractive waterside communities in the county. Particularly well known as a popular sailing centre, the town has two thriving sailing clubs, a famous annual Regatta and excellent facilities for the keen yachtsman. For a small town Fowey provides a good range of shops and businesses catering for most day to day needs. The immediate area is surrounded by many miles of delightful coast and countryside much of which is in the ownership of the National Trust. Award winning restaurants, small boutique hotels, excellent public houses etc, have helped to establish Fowey as a popular, high quality, destination.

There are several excellent golf courses within easy reach, many world class gardens are to be found in the immediate area and the fascinating Eden Project with its futuristic biomes is just 5 miles to the north west.

There are good road links to the motorway system via the A38/A30. Railway links to London, Paddington, can be made locally at Par, and St. Austell and there are flights to London and other destinations from Newquay.

Webb Street is ideally situated just around the corner from the ancient harbour of Fowey and right in the heart of the town. Surrounded by an eclectic mix of shops and coffee shops, Quayside sits above a delightful ice cream parlour, Mr Coney's.

ACCOMMODATION

Quayside has its own private entrance off Webb Street, which opens into a tiled hallway, great for storing coats and shoes. There is a useful storage cupboard under the stairs.

Stairs rise to the modern, light, open-plan living area. There is plenty of space for relaxing, dining and cooking in this very social room. The kitchen has ample sleek, white storage wall and base units, an integral washing machine, dishwasher, fridge, electric oven and hob and a breakfast bar. Views look down to the high street.

Stairs rise to the second floor, which comprises a double bedroom which benefits from an ensuite shower room, and a family bathroom. The bathroom features a bath, a separate shower cubicle, a WC, a washbasin with vanity unit, and a heated towel rail.

Further stairs rise to the third floor, which comprises a large double bedroom, a twin bedroom, and a very useful storage cupboard.

All rooms look down onto the high street, which is ideal for people watching!

Currently a holiday let, this property would make a lovely second home or main home.

AGENTS NOTES

Due to the location close to the harbour, the property has a history of flooding. Except for the entrance hallway, all accommodation is above the ground floor, so unaffected by any water ingress. We highly recommend that any interested parties consult with their lender if financing is needed.
