The Location

Fowey is regarded as one of the most attractive waterside communities in the county. Particularly well known as a popular sailing centre, the town has two thriving sailing clubs, a famous annual Regatta and excellent facilities for the keen yachtsman. For a small town Fowey provides a good range of shops and businesses catering for most day to day needs. The immediate area is surrounded by many miles of delightful coast and countryside much of which is in the ownership of the National Trust. Award winning restaurants, small boutique hotels, excellent public houses etc, have helped to establish Fowey as a popular, high quality, destination.

There are several excellent golf courses within easy reach, many world class gardens are to be found in the immediate area and the fascinating Eden Project with its futuristic biomes is just 5 miles to the north west.

There are good road links to the motorway system via the A38/A30. Railway links to London, Paddington, can be made locally at Par, and St. Austell and there are flights to London and other destinations from Newquay.

The Property

Located in an elevated position with stunning harbour views, this beautiful property offers flexible accommodation over two floors and is within easy reach of the beach and exceptional coastal footpaths.

Originally one house, the property occupies the middle and upper floors of a Victorian villa. A ground floor apartment shares pedestrian access and each property has its own front door.

The front door opens to a stairwell with steps rising to an entrance hall where there is an additional access door to the rear of the property and storage cupboard with space for a washing machine. An attractive wooden floor runs throughout the hallway and living space and stairs lead to the upper floor.

A door opens to a stylish and open plan living space with bay window, feature fireplace, lovely harbour views and well appointed kitchen with a number of integrated appliances and dining room area. Double doors open to the balcony with stunning water views and space for small table and chairs.

There are two bedrooms on the same level as the living space. A double bedroom with window to the rear elevation and stylish en suite shower room. A further single bedroom/study has a window to the rear elevation and there is a cloakroom with WC and wash basin.

Stairs from the hallway lead to the second floor where there are two double bedrooms, both with stunning harbour views and one with a large window and Juliet balcony.

There is a large bathroom with freestanding bath and separate shower cubicle.

Outside

The property is accessed from Daglands Road via a pedestrian walkway, shared access with neighbouring properties. A gate opens to the pathway leading to the front doors of 14 and 14a. There is a right of access over this path for 14a.
