LOCATION

Stanford in the Vale is an appealing and thriving downland village in the arresting Vale of White Horse forming part of West Oxfordshire, famous for its ancient prehistoric chalk horse on the North Wessex Downs where, it is also believed, St George slayed the dragon. Situated midway between the market towns of Wantage (6 miles) and Faringdon (5 miles), easily accessible from the A417, the village itself caters for day-to-day needs with a gastro pub, church, Co-op supermarket, post office, excellent primary school, pre-school and village hall. Both Wantage and Faringdon offer a further comprehensive range of shopping, leisure and recreational facilities as well as a variety of regular markets and 'in addition' there is a pleasing variety of restaurants and gastro pubs within the surrounding area. The city of Oxford (16 miles) and the commercial centre of Swindon (15 miles) are easily accessed via the A420. Oxford and Didcot (17 miles) have mainline train services to London (Paddington) in under 1 hour. There is an excellent selection of both state and private education within the locality including Radley College, Abingdon School, St Helen & St Katharine and The Manor Prep, Cokethorpe, St Hugh's, Ferndale Prep, and St Edward's, and the well regarded comprehensive schools at Wantage and Faringdon. Heathrow (64 miles), Bristol (62 Miles) and Birmingham Airports (74 miles) are each around 1 1/2 hours away. Outdoor pursuits locally include golf courses at Frilford Heath and Carswell, near Faringdon, and equestrian centres at neighbouring Goosey and Gainfield.
