Property Description

Welcome to The Viking - A rare opportunity to own a part of history in the heart of the Lune Valley. The Viking forms part of the iconic Thurland Castle, a striking Grade-II listed former castle with origins dating back to the 14th century. Originally fortified by Sir Thomas Tunstall in 1402, the castle was later rebuilt in the 19th century by architects Paley & Austin following a major fire, blending Elizabethan Revival and Gothic Revival styles.

Set within this extraordinary historic setting, this remarkable four-bedroom wing offers the perfect balance of period grandeur and modern comfort. Arranged over three atmospheric floors, the home is rich in character at every turn - from sweeping high ceilings and original stonework to the magical contrast of a turret outlook above and a snug set within the former dungeon below. Every level tells a story, yet the property is effortlessly suited to contemporary living, with excellent broadband keeping you seamlessly connected to the modern world.

The accommodation includes four beautifully proportioned bedrooms, three bathrooms, additional office space, and a wine cellar, ideal for entertaining. Mornings begin with sunshine on the terrace for breakfast, while evenings are made for sun-downers as the light fades over the moat. Owners enjoy private access to the moat itself, complete with a small boat for peaceful sails, alongside use of a tennis court and croquet lawn - everything you need for refined country living.

This is a home designed for hosting and celebration. Whether intimate gatherings or memorable parties, the setting is unrivalled. The wider castle community is warm and welcoming, complemented by a thriving village with a popular pub and activities such as Pilates in the village hall. With many neighbouring wings used as second homes, there are times when it feels as though the entire castle is yours alone.

Surrounded by an ancient moat and woodland teeming with wildlife, The Viking is a rare sanctuary - timeless, atmospheric, and utterly unforgettable.
